NOTES:

- ALL EXAM RULES & REGULATIONS APPLY FOR THE MOCK EXAMS JUST THE SAME AS EXTERNAL EXAMS. For example, mobile phones must be switched off and left in bags NOT pockets, no talking or communicating with other students once students have entered the exam room. Please refer to the Exam Information Booklet and Rules & Regulations on the school website for further details.
- Year 11 students will receive their own individual exam timetable on Thursday, 6th December, at Consultation Evening and electronic copy will be sent to parents/guardians. The individually named timetables detail the exact time of each exam, allocated rooms and seat numbers. Students need to make themselves fully aware of these details.
- Seating Plans will be available outside each exam room to enable students to double check their seat number.
- Students need to make sure they take the correct equipment to each exam, e.g. black pens, pencils, rubber, calculator where permitted, etc. which can be contained in a clear pencil case. Water bottles and containers can be taken into the exam room but labels must be removed from bottles or containers must not have any logos or writing on them.
- If students are not involved in an exam, or have finished an exam, they must go to, or return to, their timetabled lessons.
